JONES'S CONFIDENT TALK.

BRIAN AND SEWALL WILL SWEEP THE COUNTRY, HE SAYS.

The Repudiation Manager Declares that His Cause Is Galuing Strength and Will Carry the Middle Western States-Headquarters May Be in Washington, WASHINGTON, July 14.—Senator Jones of Arkassas, who is to measure swords with Mark Hanns in the coming Presidential campaign as Chairman of the National Democratic Commit-Chairman tee, arrived in Washington to-night, greatly faligued from the loss of sleep and his exertions as the presiding centus of the free-silver movement. He went directly to his residence on M street where he found a mass of letters and telegrams from all parts of the country await-Senator Jones said that he had not fully determined where he would establish his committee headquarters, although he is seriously considering the advisability of locating his beadquarters in Washington. He says there are many alvantages to be obtained here that cannot be obtained elsewhere. Besides, the experience of the Bimetallic League, which had its headquarters here, proved so successful that he is inclined to come here.

Some of the members of the committee contend that Chicago is the most desirable place because it is right in the heart of the battle ground. Senator Jones confesses that Chicago has a few advantages as to locality, but says that the Chicago papers are all against the ticket, and his experience there convinces him that the Democrats cannot expect fair treatment at the hands of the Chicago press.

Senator Jones says he has not had time to make up the committee that is to aid him in the management of the campaign, but he expects to take the matter under consideration as soon se he has had a few days' rest. He contemplate going out of town for a few days, where he can secure absolute rest and quiet, and then he will return and go right to work on the committee. It is not definitely settled yet, but the campaign probably will not be opened formally unul the early part of August. The object of opening the fight in New York is to show the people in that city that the Democratic party has no desire to hide anything from them, but to let them know just what the issues of the Bryan forces are.

As to the proposition of the gold men to put another ticket in the field, Senator Jones says that is all bosh. He contends that all of the States that are talking about bolting have repstates that are taking according have representatives on the National Committee of the Democratic party, and if they call a bolting Convention they cannot do so as Democrats. He says there is no one who has authority to call such a Convention as is proposed. Certainly they cannot expect the Chairman of the Democratic Committee to issue the call for

The Senator talks very confidently about the success of the silver ticket, and he is not disturbed by the announcement that Secretary Herbert. Secretary Oiney, and several other members of the Administration are openly opposed to the ticket nominated at Chicago. He insists that the friends of the Administration, who favor the gold standard, will be outnumbered three to I by Republicans who are going to vote for free silver.

He is not annoyed by the bolting of the gold-standard press of New England and the South for he sentends that all of the papers in that category have been opposed to silver from the beginning, and yet the silver cause has grown stronger and stronger every day. The papers that are now crying out against silver are not having the silver cause, but they are deceiving their gold friends and keeping them from learning the trath of the situation.

All the newspapers in New York cannot prevent the silver people from going ahead with their field just as they started out to make it, and it was demonstrated at Chicago that the silver column could not be broken under the strengest kind of pressure.

and it was demonstrated at Chicago that the silver column could not be broken under the effective column could not be broken under the effective column could not be broken under the senator Jones went on to tell how the free-silver men, knowing that they had nearly 600 vetes in the Convention, notified the National Committee that they wanted a temporary Chautman who would be favorable to silver.

"When the committee assembled," he said, "a motion was made to nominate Senator Daotel, and immediately the gold-standard men apposed Daniel with Senator Hill. They sent out to the world that we opposed Hill with Daniel, when, as a matter of fact, Daniel was the first name presented for the consideration of the committee. When we discovered that they wanted fight, we prepared to show them our strength on the vote for temporary Chairman. Frior to that time some of our men were disposed to be fearful of the presence of Mr. Whitney and his friends from New York, but when the roll was called, and we demonstrated that our lines could not be broken, it was plain sailing from that time broken, it was plain sailing from that time forward."

Senator Jones says he has been surprised by the growth of the sentiment in favor of Bryan since the Convention. He has received letters and telegrams from all parts of the South, West, and many from the East, assuring him that the free-silver movement will be successful. He says he does not believe in making a breas band campaign, but he is disposed to make a thorough and effective canvass of the entire country. He predicts that Illinois and Indiana, and

LABOR AGAINST CAPITAL.

The Bryan Managers to Try to Win by Fomenting Trouble.

ZANESVILLE, O., July 14 .- John McGrath, who is the organizer for the American Federa tion of Labor for the southern district of Ohio, talked yesterday of the political outlook. Mr. M. Grath is one of the labor men of the State and travels extensively. He said: "I find 16 to 1 laboring men who are thoroughly dissatisfied with the Republicans, and who will vote the Isomogratic ticket this fall simply because they regard the situation so changed that now it is the masses against capital. The Republican managers will be surprised at the silver-senti-ment in this State among the working people. It is, as I said, 16 whom I find for it to I sgainst, and if there is no change in the situa-tion fryan will come very close to carrying Onco. PHILADELPHIA, July 14.-When seen at his office this morning, W. F. Harrity was not inclined to discuss the political situation and declined to express himself as to platform or candidates. Mr. Harrity, however, made the following statement: Since my return to Philadelphia my atten-

There is no foundation whatever for such a statement. DES MOINES, Is., July 14.—The free ellver Ites held a State Convention here to-day and endorsed Bryan and Sewall, instructing the delegates to the St. Louis Convention next week to vote for their nomination. The resolutions argue the silver question at length and denounce the gold standard, the national banking system, and the issuing of interest bearing bonds in time of peace.

The attendance was small and chiefly made up of old Greenbackers and Populists and they were mostly residents of the city and immediate vicinity. Farmers drove in from the country to the meeting and were surprised to find it so small. The sliver sentiment in lows s strongest with the farmers who are not informed. The Republicans intend to follow the State Convention with a red-hot campaign for educational purposes. They will get big tents and get up excursions on the rail-Ways.

Boston, July 14.-George Fred Williams go an enthusiastic reception in this city to-night by his friends in the silver faith, the affair taking the form of a mass meeting in Fancuil The hall was densely packed and an overflow seeting was held in the square outside the hall. Mr. Williams said in his speech:

'More than 100 years ago the gathering of the good men of the town of Boston was declared by the loyalists of that day to be the gathering of a mob. No sneers, no vilidications were spared on the part of those men, who, living here in iuxury, deemed that they partook in part of the royal privilege of governing the people; and Samuel Adams, who was called a dissembler and a hypocrite, lived to hear himself lauded as the great commoner of the coloules.

A revolution was begun in this hall when Wendell Phillips stepped to this platform and began the real agitation for the emancipation of men from slavery; and those who were with him were called by these same self-constituted rulers of men crooks and mobs.

"Now it may be—I do not pretend to say—that a rew revolution nas been begun, the revolution of our industrial system. Returning to Boston from the performance of my duty. Mr. Marston has declared war on Senator Blanchard, and says he will take the stump and go actively into the canvass, and proposes to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Fourth district, the strongest ellver one in the State.

LLOYD COLLIS SUSPENDED.

HIS ELECTION DISTRICT IS TO BE REORGANIZED.

Lively Meeting of the R-publican County Committee-"I'm Not Refereeing a Prize Pight," Says Lauterbach-Reply to the Growl Made to the State Committee, Lloyd Collis, son of the Commissioner of Pubic Works and a member of the Republican County Committee, was suspended from mem berahip in that organization at a special meeting last night until he shall apologize to the committee for the use of abusive and intemperate language in characterizing a newspaper reporter who was present to repeat the proceedngs of the committee. The meeting was a special one held to consider reports of committees and other matters which might be brought to its attention. The Committee on Organization, among other things, reported in favor of striking from the rolls of the Thirtieth Election District Association of the Twenty-ninth district, which is presided over by young Mr. Collis, twenty-three names illegally enrolled at an irregular meeting, and also in favor of reorganizing the election district association because no regular meetings had been held according to the constitu-

He declared that because he was a young man he was being sat upon in the committee, and at one point he rushed down the aisle crying loudly:

"It is because I am the friend of the men who went to St. Louis to nominate McKinley that I don't get any show in this body."

There was a scene of disorder in the committee. There were cries of "Put him out!" and Sergeant-at-Arms Bodine got ready to execute the order should it be given.

Abraham Gruber appealed from the decision of the Chair, who was overruled, and the resolution of suspension was passed with a howl and a few noes. Young Collis declared with much heat that he would not apologize, and he marched out of the hall. Then the report of the committee was adopted.

Some one in the rear of the hall shouted derisively, and Mr. Little declared that the man would not dare do that on the sidewalk. He was so bellicose in his remarks that Fresident Lauterbach attempted to interrupt him, whereat Little said:

"You take altogether too much."

Mr. Lauterbach replied with some heat that when he taked it was to some purpose, and that he was "Chairman of a deliberative body, and not a referee at a prize fight."

Abraham Gruber offered a statement containing a reply to the Miholiand memorial presented to the State Committee at its last meeting, alleging that the County Committee had falled to remeety matters complained of informer petitions. The statement was adopted. It sets forth that the machinery of the county organization provides amply for the redressal of all grievances, and that the revision of the polis is the duty of the election district associations, any one of which must meet for the purpose on the call of five members.

These associations were called on in January by the County Committee to revise their rolls on or before Feb. 5 on penalty of the abolition of the non-complying organizations. All grievances arising out of non-compliance with this order have been redressed when presented. The constitution provides for a similar revision in June, and since many of the organizations have falled to report a revision of the roll the county Committee how resolves that these must do so on or before Aug. I, on penalty of abolition and reorganization. The statement goes on to say:

"The County Committee, in passing these resolutions, assumes that the petition was filed with the State Committee, in possing these resolutions, assumes that the petition re shill fall to deal justly in all cases.

The preservation of the nation, the interests of the Republican party, the vital necessity that exists for the concentration of all our forces to secure the election of McKinley and Hubart as President and Vice-President of the United States, the urgent demand that the heresies of free silver and free trade shall be annihilated, renders it, in the opinion of this committee, an improper period in which to indulge in personal reflections or in factional controversy.

IOWA REPERLICANS

Quite a Lively Affair.

DES MOINES, In., July 14.-Ten candidates for one Supreme Judgeship, four for Secretary of State, and three for Railway Commissioner make the preliminary skirmishing of the Republican State Convention to-morrow quite in-

Candidates for Auditor of State, Treasurer of State, and Attorney-General will also be nominated, but on these there is no fight. C. G. Mc-Carthy of Story county for Auditor, John Herriott of Guthrie county for Treasurer, and Milton Remier of Johnson county for Attorney-General will be renominated without opposition. The Secretary of State comes first in the list. George L. Dobson of this city has the lead over E. D. Chassell of Lemars, C. O. Byrkett of Des Moines, and George S. Hanaford of Charles Judge S. M. Weaver of Hardin county and Judge Scott M. Ladd of O'Brien county are in the lead for Supreme Judge. Other candidates are Judge G. W. Burnham of Benton, C. D. Leggett of Jefferson county, Judge John W. Harvey of Decatur county, and Judge C. M.

Waterman of Scott county. For Railway Commissioner, E. A. Dawson, who was appointed last year to fill a vacancy, is opposed by John M. Kemble, member of the State Committee from Muscatine, and Frank T. Committee from Muscatine, and Frank T. Campbell of Des Moiner, who was for several rears a member of the Commission, but was defeated at the polls in 1801. All these candidates are more or less interested together, and the success of one depends on the success or failure of the other. Chassell and Ladd being from the same Congress district, both cannot be nominated. The district is indicating plainly that it prefers Ladd to Chassell, which greatly weakens Chassell, who is otherwise strongest next to Dobson.

Dobson.

Dobson and Campbell both live in Des Moines, which makes Campbell want to defeat Dobson, to leave him a chance as Railway Commissioner, who will be nominated last. On the other hand the other candidates for Commissioner are very anxious to nominate Dobson to kill off Campbell. This desire is strongest in the heart of the railroad people, who are determined to beat Campbell because he has shown himself in the past to be a most industrious and ingenious fighter of the railroads. He was originally appointed by Gov. Larrabee to carry out his policy of railroad control and was a thorn in the flesh to railroad people for nearly four years. Then they brought about his defeat. Now that he has appeared again they have a big lobby here to beat him. They are favoring Dawson and Dobson. The Judgeship comes into the combine to some extent, Ladd and Weaver getting the benefit of it. The chances are very much in favor of Dobson and Dawson, with the Judgeship in doubt.

The Convention will endorse the St. Louis platform without any additions. At least that is the intention of the leaders, though a few have said they would like to have a resolution modifying the money plack to some extent. This will not be tolerated. The nomination of John H. Hoffecker of Smyrna was made by Dr. T. C. Moore and seconied by several others, and the nomination of Mr. Willis was made by ex-Judge George R. Fisher. The platform adopted declared in favor of sound money, McKinley, and Hobart, and denounced the action of the National Committee in refusing to seat the Addicks delegates at the St. Louis Convention.

M'RINLEY'S NEW RECRUITE.

Delegate Cooper of Delaware Stops at Canton on His Way Home from Chicago. CANTON, O., July 14.-The monotony of leters and telegrams from sound-money Democrats who are displeased by the action of the Chicago Convention was broken to-day by a call in person from one of these men. His name is E. T. Cooper. His home is Dover, Del. He was one of the delegates to the Chi cago Convention, but none of the work was accomplished through his assistance.

"The platform," said he, "is anarchism of the rankest type. As to the candidates, there was striking inappropriateness in their personality. Bryan and Sewall have nothing in common. One of Bryan's pet topics is ranting against rich corporations. Sewall is the head of a very close corporation. Bryan is unalterably opposed to national banks. Sewall is just as friendly to them and believes in them. Sewall will accomplish nothing substantial for the party in Maine, and his candidacy will have no effect on other Eastern States."

Mr. Cooper paid Major McKinley a visit, He was cordially received, and left very favorably impressed with the Republican nominee. It was expected that Chairman Hanna would announce the advisory committee to-day, and it is still believed that such was his criginal intention. It is said now that the plan was changed in order to have the advice of the National Committee, and the appointments will not be made until after Vednesday's meeting. The size of the committee has not been agreed upon.

It is so near conclusively settled that New York is to be the official headquarters that Cleveland, which had aspirations in that direction, is putting out a line for the impor-tant Western bureau which it is said the leader that Western bureau which it is expected will be fixed in Chicago. The story has been related that Sena'or Quay is to be a very large-sized man in the campaign management. The story goes that he is to look closely after the East and the official headquarters. Mr. Hanna will give much of his personal attention to the Western work, not, however, to the extent of leaving the Eastern work entirely to others, ten. Osborne, Secretary for the campaign, will share the labors with Major Charles F. Dick, late Ohlo State Chairman and Mr. Hanna's right-hand man, while Smith D. Fry, a Washington Journalist, originally from the Northwest, is expected to be one of the assistants. Congressman Rowland B. Mahany of Buffalo had a conference with Major McKinley 13-day. In view of the desire of both the factions to secure the yacant place on the Exn the campaign management to-day. In view of the desire of both the fac-tions to secure the vacant place on the Ex-ecutive Committee, it was thought that the Congressman's visit might have something to do with this. Speaking of his visit, he said he did not care to discuss the object of his trip, but it was no secret that he called on matters connected with campaign work.

"I do not think," he said, "the committee should be niled out with a New Yorker." In discussing the campaign, he said all Re-publicans of New York have dropped local differences and are working harmoniously for M-Kinley and Hobart.

As to the night place on the Executive Com-

McKinley and Hobart.

As to the ninth place on the Executive Committee, it is still believed that Senator Thurston of Nebraska will be prevailed upon to accept.

Major McKinley to-day received a telegram from John B. Cunningham, President of the Young Men's Republican Club at Lincoln, Neb. saying: Neb., saving:
"I am instructed to send you the following measure: The Young Men's Republican Club, stronger in membership and influence than ever before during its nine years existence, in meeting assembled, send greeting to William McKinley of Onio, and assure him that in the company counter the feature.

greeting to William Mc Kinley of Ohio, and assure him that in the coming contest the fact that our fellow townsman, William J. Bryan, is the Democratic nominee will only make our organization more enthusiastic and determined than ever. This county will cast an immense majority for McKinley. We have been in battle array in this State against populism until fighting vagaries, such as the Chicago platform, have become an accustomen thing. Situated as we are in the disjuted territory, we welcome the conflict and are firm in our carviction that victory will not come to Mr. Bryan in either this nation, State, or county."

HANNA'S AIDES TO MEET TO-DAY. There May Be a Two Days' Session of the

CLEVELAND, O., July 14.- The Hon. Henry C. Payne of Wisconsin was the first member of the Executive Committee of the Republican National Committee to reach Cleveland to attend the meeting called for to-morrow Mr. Hanna said to-day that he thought the Executive Committee would be in session two days. He did not see how it could possibly get through its work in less time.

"I cannot tell," he said, "who will be the inth member of the committee. I don't know yet myself. The committee will simply discuss details and methods of carrying on the campaign. We recognize that it is to be a battle royal, and naturally want to make no mistakes." Mr. Payne said:

'The Western States will be the seat of contest, and for that reason I favor the location of campaign headquarters at Chicago. It is folly to have the commander-in-chief fifteen hundred miles away from the scene of conflict."

An impression prevails that Senator Thurston of Nebraska, permanent Chairman of the St. Louis Convention, c.n be the ninth member of the Executive Committee if he will accept the place. Should the Executive Committee remain in seasion over Thursday, Major McKinley will come up from Canton and see the members. He would come to-morrow, but the proposed visit of the women of northeastern Ohio interferes. The selection of the place for headquarters, it is conceded, rests largely with Mr. Hanna. He is quoted as saying that if there should be a change from New York his preference is for Cleveland. test, and for that reason I favor the location of Cieveland.

Payne and the other Western members—Clayton of Arkansas, Dawes of Illinois, Durbin of Indiana, and Leland of Kansas, if united, could settle the matter in favor of Chicago, but it is not clear that they would oppose Mr. Hanna's wisnes to that degree.

Mr. Payne is emphatic against New York. "If we can't carry the Eastern States on this issue," he says, "we can't carry anything."

France's President Had Just Entered the Grounds When One or Two Shots Were Fired-The Man Says His Cartridges Were Blank and He Fired Because He Felt Good-He Is Thought to Be Insane.

Paris, July 14,-What is asserted in some quarters to have been an attempt to assassinate President Fellx Faure was made at 2:50 o'clock this afternoon at the parade ground at Longchamps. The day was the one hundred and sev enth anniversary of the fall of the Bastile, and was celebrated in the usual manner, including review of the troops at Longchamps, which drew a very large concourse of people. Among those present were some of the members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, who were yesterday elected honorary members of the Cercle Militaire.

President Faure, accompanied by Prime Minister Meline, Gen. Le Mouton de Bolsdeffre, chief of staff of the army, and Gen. Tournier, chief of the President's military household, left the Palace of the Elysée in an open carriage and drove to Longchamps, it having been arranged that the President should review the troops. As the carriage passed through the Porte du Moulin entrance to the parade ground It was surrounded by troops who were to escort M. Faure to the reviewing stand.

Before the vehicle had proceeded far a tall, fair, and correctly dressed man, about thirtyfive years of age, stepped slightly in advance of the crowd and drew a revolver, which, some eye witnesses declare, he discharged point-blank at the President.

Immediately there was a scene of the greatest excitement, and it would undoubtedly have gone hard with the man had he not at once been seized by the gendarmes who were standing by He was at once conducted to the temporary police quarters that had been established near the Grande Cascade, within the grounds.

The man resisted arrest, declaring that he had done nothing to cause his being taken into custody. He asserted that he had not fired the revolver with any intention of injuring the President, and that in fact the weapon had only been oaded with blank cartridges. He said that he had discharged the revolver in exuberance of spirits.

Some of those who stood close by him when the President entered the grounds declare that two shots were fired. An examination of the revolver that was made by the police appears to bear out the prisoner's statement that blank cartridges were used, for in four of the cham bers cartridges with no bullets were found. Attempts at the police station to learn anything further from the prisoner were of no avail. He said that his name was Francois, and refused to say anything further. The prisoner appeared to be insane.

spread like wildfire and the most exaggerated reports gained credence. The crowd of spectators surged toward the President's carriage, and the troops had a difficult task in keeping the excited people back. It took only a little time, however, for it to be learned that M. Faure was unharmed, whereupon the crowd cheered the President again and again.

M. Faure appeared to be entirely unmoved by the excitement. He had paid no attention to the shot, and calmly conversed with his companions in the carriage until the shouts and cheers of the multitude drowned his voice. Then, directing his coachman to drive on he went to the stand and reviewed the troops, after which he was driven back to the Palace of the

The police informed a reporter of La Press that François is the same lunatic who recently threw a bundle of petitions from the gallery of the Chamber of Deputies into the body of the House, thereby causing a semi-panic among the members, who imagined that the bundle was a omb.

Late this afternoon François was examined by Prefect Lepine. He was then more commu nicative, and told the Prefect that in discharging the revolver he merely wished to attract attention. He reiterated his statements that he had had no wish to injure anybody and that the weapon was loaded with only blank cartridges. François was formerly a street surveyor employed by the Municipal Council of Paris, but was discharged owing to his presumed Anarchist tendencies. The special offence which led to his discharge was the publication of revolutionary verses. He lives at 46 Rue Clery. His residence was searched by the police, but nothing of a suspicious nature was found. The officials believe that he is insane firing a reputed Anarchist named Boulant was arrested for saying:

That's the sort of fellow for me. He has done the proper thing." This approval of outrage is a penal offence under M. Dupuy's anti-anarchy laws, and Boulant stands a good chance of spending a few of the coming years in prison. The feeling of the crowd at the reviewing grounds was illustrated by its treatment of a waiter at the café at the Grande Cascade. In some way this man was mistaken by the crowd for François, and a savage attack was made upon him. One of his eyes was torn out, and he was almost lynched before the police were able to rescue him. The news of the shooting had preceded the President to the city, and as he was recognized by the people on the streets through which he passed on his return he was greeted with cheers and congratulations. This evening the diplomats and a large number of the prominent men called at the Palace of the Elysée and congratulated M. Faure. Several sovereigns sent telegraphic messages of congratulation. Throughout the whole episode M. Faure wa perfectly calm and unaffected. Both at the reviewing ground and on his return to the city he received an ovation, and was greeted with the heartlest cries of "Long live the President of the republic!" The affair recalls to mind the fact that a similar assault was made upon the late President, M. Sadi-Carnot, in the Avenue de Marigny in 1803. Many persons believe the story of the prisoner. whose full name is Eugene Marie François, that he had no intention of harming the President. A search was made at Longchamps for the bullet discharged from the revolver, but not a sign of it could be found. This is held to confirm the prisoner's story that he used blank car tridges. The police story that he is the man who caused the recent commotion in the Chamber of Deputies is generally discredited. They have mixed the prisoner up with Jean Pierr François, an Anarchist who was implicated in the dynamite explosion caused by Havachol and who fled to London, whence he was extradited in 1892. It is evident from the facts that have been learned that M. Faure would not have been in any great danger, even if François had used ball cartridges. François stood behind the troops who lined the wide road, and at the time the shot was fired the horses drawing the President's carriage were trotting fast. The carriage was surrounded by a cavairy escort, who raised a cloud of dust which almost obscured the carriage and its occupants from view. Had ball cartridges been used it is probable that one of the cavairymen, rather than the President, would have been shot. The incident did not check the gayeties of the fêtes which were in progress in the city and suburbs in honor of the

The heat during the afternoon was intense and the troops suffered severely. A large number of them were sunstruck, while others were

ATTEMPT TO KILL EZETA. The Ex-President of Salvador Assaulted at His Hotel.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14 .- An attempt was made to assassinate Carlos Ezeta, ex-President of Salvador, in the dining room of his hotel this afternoon. The ex-President was seated at a table with a few of his friends, when Pedro Jiminez, a native of Salvador, entered the room. The intruder walked directly to Ezeta's chair, and as the latter faced about Jiminez spat in his face.

The ex-President sprang to his feet to resent the insult, when Jiminez drew a revolver and levelled it at Ezeta's breast. Ezeta retained his presence of mind, and, selzing a chair, he held t over Jiminez's head and dared him to fire. In another moment the would-be assassin was disarmed by Ezeta's friends and hurried from the room.

Jiminez was arrested. He said he was for merly District Attorney of Salvador under Ezeta's Administration. While acting in that capacity he incurred the displeasure of the dictator, who, he said, put him to torture. The ex-President denies the prisoner's statement, and expresses the belief that Jiminez is an emissary of President Gutierrez of Salvador, who con strues Ezeta's presence in San Francisco as a menace to the Salvadorean Government.

SOCIALIST MAYOR ARRESTED. The Notorious M. Calvignae Accused o

PARIS, July 14 .- M. Calvignac, the Socialist Mayor of Carmaux, Department of Tarn, who gained much notoriety during the great strike of the coal miners in that place in 1802, has been arrested for acting contrary to the authority of the Government. The Socialists are greatly excited over his arrest and are preparing to make a demonstration.

The dispute between the Carmaux miners and their employer grew out of the discharge of His residence was searched by the police, but nothing of a suspicious nature was found. The officials believe that he is insane.

which led to his dismissal by the mining company.

His discharge was rescoted by the miners, and a general strike ensued, which led to much rioting. A meeting was held in Paris to support the strikers, and the Chamber of Denutles became mixed up in the trouble. An attack was made on the Government respecting the strike, but it was defeated.

Finally the company and the miners accepted arbitration, and M. Loubet, then Prime Minister, was selected as arbitrator. He decided that Calvignac should be reliastated as a workman, with leave of absence while Mayor; that all the strikers should be taken back except those imprisoned for violence, and that the managers of the mine, who had been forced to resign, should be reinstated. This award was rejected by the miners, but later they went back to work by
